Great Closing Out Sale!

Cheer Up and Let Your Purse Strings Loose

At this great closing-out sale of the two large stocks which we purchased in Burlington last month. It's an opportunity that won't present itself every day. Whoever is elected President, the country will be safe the next four years. Wages will increase, mills will start up, big trusts will be formed and prices will certainly advance on all lines of merchandise, so strike while the iron is hot and do not let this opportunity pass for laying in a good supply of Clothing, Shoes, Rubbers and Furnishing Goods for yourself and your family for the next year or two at unheard-of prices. We are at your service. Remember the place.

Segels & Brady report a very large clothing business done by them on Saturday. Eight clerks were kept busy all day and evening waiting on trade. The values offered by them on Saturday were unmatchable and bargains were plentiful in all departments. Many people from out of town as well as from the city bought heavily and Messrs. Segels and Brady wish to say that all those who were unable to attend their Saturday sale will please call in this evening or all through the week and we will make your visits both pleasant and profitable as our stock is among the largest and most varied in the state. We guarantee all goods we sell or your money back if goods are found not as represented by us. Respectfully yours, Segels & Brady.

GODDARD ITEMS.

A. J. McKellow, Formerly of Barre, Buys Part of a Philippine Plantation.

The first number of The Goddard Record for the current school year was issued today, and the form, entirely changed, presents a much more attractive paper. The reading matter, too, is so arranged as to interest the readers.

The following concerning Alfred McKellow, formerly of this city, is clipped: "Mr. McKellow is still in the Philippines, at Tayan, Oriental Negros. His work of superintendence lies over four towns, extending twenty miles along the coast, so that he does little general teaching, but is in the saddle much of the time visiting the different schools. Mr. McKellow has invested in a large plantation which is being plowed and planted to rice, corn and sugar cane. The care of this farm prevented his expected return to the states this last summer, but he plans to come in a year and will visit friends in Vermont."

Another item regarding Raymond Morley, Goddard 1897, says that Mr. Morley "was graduated from Tufts college this spring and is honored by having gained the highest rank in scholarship over reached in that college." Mr. Morley is now an instructor in the University of Maine.
